Meet the Teacher Night and Family BBQ Details

Some of you have asked what you will be eating at our Meet the Teacher Night and Family BBQ on September 2nd. Our Cafeteria will be grilling up burgers, hot dogs, and chicken sandwiches all for less than $5 (Chinese Chicken Salads will also be available for $5.50). Additionally, some of our VCS groups will be selling desserts, snacks, and drinks as fundraisers.

Our night will unfold as follows:

5:00-6:15 Family BBQ and Games; Performances by our Choir, Drumline, Dance and Cheer Teams, and our Music Program; an Information Fair will also be set up to give you a head start on the school year.

6:15 Dedication Circle

6:30 Meet the Teachers

8:00 Senior Meeting

Limousine service (well, really our school buses) will be shuttling from Calvary Church on La Tuna Canyon, if you don't want to park on campus.

See you on September 2nd!

Student Journalists Honored, Yearbook Rated First Class!

Congratulations to our student journalists! Four members of the high school newspaper, "The Chronicle," and three members of the Crusader Yearbook received commendations from Los Angeles County Supervisor Michael Antonovich for their inclusion in the National Scholastic Press Association's "2010 Best of the High School Press Honor Roll." The 2009-2010 high school yearbook staff was also awarded a "First Class" rating with the NSPA. The judging reviewed the Crusader in area of theme/concept, ("Masterpiece") coverage, design, writing and editing, photography, and deadline. Chronicle students honored are: Christiana Ko, Brianna Shannon, Stephanie Cheek and Maryland Doll. Yearbook students honored are: Jessica Kim, Michelle Woodcock and Emily Seidel.

Cross Country Ready to Run

Are you still looking for a sport that provides great training in a life-long sport, as well as incredible team bonding and PE credit? Then Cross Country is for you. Coach Largent is still accepting runners to participate in the team this fall. Please contact him at fredl@villagechristian.org.
